

25. Hangman

The old favorite. Very good for reviewing vocab from past lessons. You can play this game either with all students playing against each other (for points) or as a team game. You can also have students play in pairs - give the class a category, such as food, and each pair plays hangman together deciding on the words themselves.

